Looking for an Importer?

We can be your ACP

Attorney for the Customs Procedures
 For shipping the goods to warehouse in Japan and you have no one in Japan who can act as a consignee, you can nominate someone in Japan as an "Attorney for the Customs Procedure". The Japanese customs requires a payment of import tariffs and consumption tax at the time of import and sees if the declared values of the products are fair and correct. Once registration number is granted, the registration is valid forever unless the attorney is dismissed. Under this service, you will be exporter as well as importer.
